Re: Dormant Commission in Western Australia.

Greetings Ms Russell,

Please find enclosed documents for filing with the Supreme Court of Western Australia (Imp) bringing suit against;

1. The Bunbury Diocesan Trustees & Co.
2. Acting Lieutenant Governor (Chief Justice) Peter Damien Quinlan.
3. Acting Governor Chris Dawson.
4. United Nations Ejectment.

The matters referred to above are likely to create political uncertainty and the safety of the Court to hear disputes or make orders considering that Peter Quinlan and Chris Dawson are named as respondents in those matters.

For those reasons we wish to offer the Court opportunity to respond, and Mr Quinlan and Mr Dawson grace to provide for their proper commission of office on condition of our safety.

We propose that the Court enters our injunction as a stay on the matter PE 1251-1254/ 2025 and NO 777-781/2025 WAPOL v ATHERTON and lifts any bail conditions and restrictions on private travel and generally recognises our right to protest a conflict of laws in Rem.

We wish to proceed to sue the Bunbury Diocesan Trustees for Breach of Contract - Trespass of Chattels to establish and to restore our standing and claim of right by Original motion in the Supreme Court of Western Australia Imperial jurisdiction where we will establish our right to Colonial governance De jure, Clause 7 Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act 1900 (UK)

You may note in our concerns raised with the Clerk of Courts (see attached letters) that the Magistrate Court appears to accept unsigned Bills of Lading for presentation by the Donor to take from our property unlawfully in Breach of Contract/ Trespass of Chattels. We raised these matters with the Magistrates court Clerk and with the Supreme Court to avert a controversy on the 13th of February 2025.

The matter of common knowledge (judicial notice) of Dormant Commission in Western Australia appears not to be given proper consideration, nor the presumption (rebutted) of this court being able to lawfully constitute this court, s 34 Magistrates Court Act 2004.

We also point out the controversy of Magistrate D WEBB (NO 777-781/2020) and the apparent conflict of interests and contempt of court remanding the body in prison on unsafe orders over looking the fact of the prosecution forcibly taking IP's prior to the court, and suggesting to grant the prosecution bail conditions to take IP's after the matter had been brought before this court.

Those things raise serious concerns over the impartiality of this court and the safety of our attending ANY court where a conflict of laws may be raised.

It appears that this court (referring to Uniform Law jurisdiction over shadowing Colonial Legislation) attempts to control proceedings to advantage the interests of administrative justice, thereby creating a general interest matter (Conflict of Laws) for the transfer of those matters to the Supreme Court Imperial jurisdiction to be heard by Colonial Courts of Admiralty as an original motion, marquee and reprisal in self defence.

We therefore conditionally offer to withhold the filing of prosecution notices for Peter Quinlan and Chris Dawson to allow for the withdrawal of all charges and private settlement, including our recognition as Commissioner, or their presentation of a proper commission of office and clergy licensing papers.

By these offerings we hope to ease tensions and provide responsible transition to Colonial governance De jure.

We would be grateful for your comments and suggestions on how this may be achieved considering the shortness of time until the 4th December court appearance and the political sensitivity of the matter.

While we make these offerings without prejudice, non-assumpsit in good faith, we do not have control over the irrational response of the public should they become aware of these things without fully understanding the powers at play and the responsibilities of good civil management. We therefore seek your urgent attention to these things and your response at your earliest convenience.

You will see that our right to travel privately has been infringed by the Director General of Transport, CEO DOT mental health fitness to drive notification to which we surrendered ATHERTON forthwith. We are therefore unreasonably restricted in our freedom of movement and capacity to attend meetings or collect mail etc.

If we have not been provided with some form of response or guidance by close of business Tuesday 25th November 2025 we will assume the Court is unwilling to negotiate and the matter (Quinlan and Dawson) will be recorded for filing and orders made to prevent further injury.

We also wish to add that for all New Westralia prosecutions and directions we require a geographical address within the Colony with geographical coordinates included for the physical location of the respondents domicile and residence. As an act of courtesy these details may be recorded confidentially with the Court to preserve the privacy of the respondent, 3A (c) Rules of the Supreme Court 1971.

Also let it be known that anyone wishing to leave the Colony must provide notice of their intended departure prior to leaving with time allowed for the granting of leave to depart the Colony, or a Lien may follow the absconder and charges laid for the recovery of debts etc, or the trade of detainees/ lienees made between the high contracting parties.

The Sheriffs Office is ordered to serve Summons on the Bunbury Diocesan Trustees and the Trustees of Notre Dame (enclosed), with the Supreme Court entering formal appearance on presentation of the Defendants or their representations.

We are under no illusion to the importance of these matters and we acknowledge that you may need supervisor support in dealing with these things, be that as it may, as Master of the Supreme Court of Western Australia we must hold you to account for acts and omissions causing us injury, loss or harm.

Know by these letters Ms Russel that we have been abused by the trustee(s) and seek the safety of the Court.

ADF JAG Rear Admiral Jack Rush is included in these letters, Admiralty has surety in the matter.

Thank you for taking our letters Ms Russell, please prepare to commence proceedings against the Bunbury Diocesan Trustees and Board of Governors and inform Peter and Chris of the matters now before the Court by registering our papers in the Supreme Court Register and sending copies to those respondents and to myself for the record.

Without ill- will, vexation or frivolity.

In peace and kindness.

Commissioner of the Peace. William Pumphrey, Sui juris.

Dear Mr Pumphrey,

Proposed proceedings

I refer to your letter addressed to Master Russell dated 18 November 2025 and the enclosures to that letter. Those documents have been referred to me to consider whether they should be accepted for filing.

Among the enclosures to the letter, it appears you seek to file:

- a) a document titled both 'Prosecution Notice' and 'General Form of Writ of Summons', which names the Bunbury Diocesan Trustees and Board of Governors as defendants; and
- b) a document titled 'Interlocutory Injunction Order', which appears to name the Chief Justice as the defendant.

I have refused to accept the documents you have presented for filing pursuant to Order 67 rule 5 of the Rules of the Supreme Court 1971 (WA). Order 67 rule 5 provides as follows:

5. Abuse of process etc., procedure in case of

- (1) If any writ, process, motion, application or commission, which is presented for filing, issue or sealing appears to the registrar to be an abuse of the process of the Court or a frivolous or vexatious proceeding, the registrar shall refuse to file or issue such writ, process, motion, application or commission without the leave of a judge or a master first had and obtained by the party seeking to file or issue it.
- (2) In the case of a motion or an application ordinarily returnable before a master in chambers, an application for leave to file or issue such motion or application shall be made to a master in chambers.
- (3) In all other cases, an application or commission shall be made to a judge in chambers.
- (4) Applications for leave under subrules (2) and (3) shall be made ex parte and shall be supported by affidavit.

The documents you presented for filing appear to be an abuse of process of the Court or a frivolous or vexatious proceeding.

The Court will not accept the documents you presented for filing until such time as you have obtained the leave of a judge.

If you wish to press for the filing of any of the documents enclosed with your letter addressed to Master Russell dated 18 November 2025, you must file an application for leave to a judge in chambers, supported by an affidavit. A copy of the document you presented for filing (as enclosed with your letter dated 18 November 2025) should be attached to the affidavit, together with a copy of this letter. I enclose copies of the appropriate form of that application and a pro forma affidavit.

Yours sincerely,

NOTICE TO ACCUSED

BAIL ACT 1982

Section 30(2)

1. Appearance in court

You must appear at the time and place mentioned in your undertaking and surrender yourself into the custody of the court. You must then remain in custody until you are entitled to be released.

2. Bail Conditions

While you are on bail you must also observe the conditions set out in your undertaking.

If you fail to comply with a condition set out in your undertaking imposed for the purposes mentioned in clause 2(2)(c) or (d) of Part D of Schedule 1 to the Act you commit an offence. The penalty for the offence is a fine up to $10,000 or imprisonment for up to 3 years, or both.

3. Notification Of Later Time / Place

If you are notified either by a judicial officer or by a court official of a different time, or a different time and place, for your appearance, then you must appear at the time, or at the time and place, so notified. Such notification may be given to you by a judicial officer at a hearing. If a notification is given to you by a court official it must be in writing handed to you personally, or sent to you by post or electronic communication.

4. Failure to Attend

Should you fail to appear in court as required you must as soon as is practicable appear at the court when it is sitting.

5. Consequences Of Non-Appearance

If, without reasonable cause, you do not appear in court as mentioned in paragraph 1 or 3 above, you commit an offence. If you do not appear as mentioned in paragraph 4 above you commit a further offence. The penalty for each offence is a fine of up to $10,000 or imprisonment for up to 3 years, or both.

You will also be liable to an order to pay the amount of money, if any, referred to in your bail undertaking.

If your non-appearance continues for more than 1 year that amount will be automatically forfeited.

You may also be ordered to pay some or all the cost of your return to custody.

In addition, any surety will be liable to an order to pay the amount of money referred to in his/her surety undertaking.

6. Change of Address etc.

You must, in writing, notify the court at which you are to appear of any change of residential address. It is an offence not to do so, without reasonable cause.

The maximum penalty for the offence is a fine up to $1,000.

7. When Court May Reconsider Bail

Your bail may be interrupted and you may be brought before the court for reconsideration of bail in the following situations:

a) if your surety or a police officer reasonably believes that:

(i) you are not likely to appear in court as required; or

(ii) a bail condition is being, has been or is likely to be broken by you,

b) if a police officer reasonably believes that the court should reconsider your surety or the security (if applicable)

c) if your bail is for an appeal and a police officer reasonably believes that you have been guilty of delaying the hearing of the appeal; or

d) if your surety applies to the court for cancellation of his/her surety undertaking.

In case of urgency where your surety reasonably believes that you are not likely to appear in court as required or that you have broken any bail conditions, he/she may arrest you and hand you over to a police officer to be taken before the court for reconsideration of bail.

In the case of an accused who is a child, the references to 'surety' in this part of the form includes the 'responsible person'.

8. Interruption Of Bail On Application By Responsible Person

If you are a child and the responsible person wants to have his or her undertaking cancelled, you may be taken into custody until the application is dealt with by a police officer and another responsible person takes over.

Footnote:

A responsible person is a person who gives an undertaking under clause 2(3)(c) of Part C of Schedule 1 to ensure that a child does what is required by his/her bail undertaking.

Board of Trustees

On April 8, 1967, the Board of Fellows of the University approved new Bylaws which, except to the extent of those powers reserved for the Fellows, delegated the general power of governance to a Board of Trustees. This Board of Trustees consists of members of the Congregation of Holy Cross as well as lay leaders. The Trustees hold at least three regular meetings each academic year and operate under the following committees: Executive Committee, Athletic Affairs Committee, Audit Committee, Compensation Committee, External Engagement Committee, Faculty Affairs, Research and Scholarship Committee, Governance and Nominating Committee, Investment Committee, Stewardship Committee, and the Undergraduate Education and Student Life Committee.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT 1971 - ORDER 71A RULE 3A

3A. Court may dispense with requirement to state geographical address

(1) The Court may, on the application of a person or on its own initiative, order that the person's geographical address does not have to be stated in a document that is otherwise required under these rules to state the person's geographical address.

(2) Subject to subrule (3), the Court must not make an order under subrule (1) in relation to a person unless the person —

- (a) is an individual; and
- (b) has provided an address for service; and
- (c) has provided his or her geographical address to the Court on a confidential basis.

(3) In exceptional circumstances, the Court may make an order under subrule (1) even though the person has not provided his or her geographical address to the Court.

(4) The Court may, on the application of any person or on its own initiative, do one or more of the following —

- (a) amend or cancel an order made under subrule (1);
- (b) order that the person's geographical address be given to another person.
